RECENT UPDATES & INVESTOR WATCHPOINTS

- Growth improved: FY26 turnover was INR 63,763 crore; underlying sales growth was 5%, led by 4% underlying volume growth.
- Margin investment: EBITDA was INR 15,054 crore at a 23.6% margin as HUL continued brand, innovation and future-capability investment.
- Portfolio reset: the Ice Cream business demerger changes continuing-operations comparability for FY25 and FY26; reported tables retain the company's disclosure basis.
- Leadership transition: Priya Nair became CEO & MD from 1 August 2025; Niranjan Gupta became Executive Director, Finance & CFO from 1 November 2025.
- Brand moat: HUL reports 20 brands with turnover above INR 1,000 crore and 85% of the business superior to 'eyeball competition' under its internal framework.
- Operating sustainability: 97% of operations were powered by renewable energy in FY26, supporting lower operating carbon intensity and supply-chain resilience.

Method: audited consolidated/continuing-operations performance as presented by HUL; FY25 dividend includes the special dividend. FY25-FY26 continuing-operations figures reflect the Ice Cream demerger and are not strictly comparable with earlier years. Market value calculations use the 17-Jul-2026 close.
